21. [] LEGISLATION Received a call from Jim Oliver, OMB, giving a preliminary reading that OMB will probably not submit an amendment revising upward the appropriations figure of [] million for CIARDS for FY 1977. He thought at first that the revision could be included in an overall updating report to the Congress. He now learned that it must be a separate submission approved by the President which is seldom done. I discussed this with [] Office of Finance. The Agency can live with the [] million figure for FY 1977 since the figure has to be readjusted in the ensuing years.

5.  LIAISON Called Jim Frey, OMB, and he confirmed that Phil Buchen, Counsel to the President, had approved General Walters' legislation but that he was awaiting a call from Jack Marsh, Counsellor to the President. I asked Frey to give me a call as soon as he had clearance in view of the Director's interest.

11. [] LEGISLATION Spoke with Mr. James MacRae, OMB, regarding our views letter on S.2925, the zero-base review bill, which had been forwarded to OMB for clearance. Mr. MacRae promised to expedite this matter and hopefully would be able to get back to me within a few days. He also speculated that in light of the apparently increasing opposition to zero-base review by a number of committees in both Houses of Congress, the prospects for passage of S.2925 or a similar bill this session seemed at this point to be diminishing.

17. LEGISLATION Called Jim Oliver, OMB, and inquired as to the status of their review of the material requested by the Senate Appropriations Committee. He gave me revised language describing the provisions of H. R. 13615, CIARDS, for inclusion in the Senate Appropriations Committee report on H. R. 14262, the House Defense Appropriations bill for FY 1977. He is still reviewing the data for the estimated cost figure for FY 1977. He hopes to get a letter from OMB to the Committee revising the figure upward sometime next week.

6. LEGISLATION Called Hilda Schreiber, ~~OMB~~, concerning H.R. 13335, a bill to revise cost-of-living adjustments. She said that no Agency had reported on the bill as yet, and she thought the best thing for us to do would be to defer to the position of the Civil Service Commission. She said she thought the reports would be "sat on" at OMB anyway. STAT

3. [] LEGISLATION Jim Oliver, OMB, called. OMB will not oppose the action of the Congressional Budget Office and the House Budget and Appropriations Committees changing the funding proposal in the CIARDS bill, H. R. 13615, from an indefinite authority to a direct annual authority, recognizing that the bill would not otherwise have been acted upon. Oliver also stated that they are submitting to the Congress a revised estimate of the budget and will include an upward revision of the Agency's appropriation for CIARDS probably at the [] figure.

24. [] LEGISLATION Yesterday, I received several calls from Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, advising that he was now zeroing in on our retirement bill, H. R. 13615. He asked for a full briefing on the bill for Friday morning, 18 June and a letter from OMB to the Committee amending the President's budget for FY 1977 to raise the [] million figure to the higher amount based on the recalculation. He also wants a letter from the Agency by Friday setting forth further data, including a comparison of the costs of our system to Foreign Service. The requests were coordinated with [] Office of Finance, [] and Jim Taylor, Office of the Comptroller, and [] Office of Personnel.

23. [] LEGISLATION Called Jim Oliver, OMB and discussed the request by Charles Snodgrass, House Appropriations Defense Subcommittee staff, for a letter from OMB amending the President's budget for FY 1977 to raise the Agency's appropriations for CIARDS from [] million to the higher figure based on the updated actuarial study. He said this is not easily done since the letter has to be approved by the President. He asked for me to prepare a draft letter from OMB to the Committee and they will consider it further. OMB will consider only the [] million figure for FY 1977 which was the Agency's recalculation previously approved by OMB. A draft letter was handcarried to Mr. Oliver, and also a statutory amendment to the House Defense Authorization bill, and a short description of the retirement bill, H. R. 13615, for OMB's review prior to submission to the Senate Appropriations Committee. The material was first coordinated with [] OF, and John Iams, Comptroller.

3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Phil Buchen, Counsel to the President, concerning General Vernon Walters' retirement status. I asked him if it was still in the White House and he said he didn't know but he would "take it from here." I asked that he or Frey let me know where it stands and he agreed.
